

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall be free of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address: BRADFIELD'S REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

TWO CASES OF BURGLARY.

Tom Argue and D. G. Buck Both Relieved of Their Valuables.

There was a burglar abroad some time night before last but no one knew anything about it until yesterday morning. About the same time two men made the discovery that while they had been outdoors sleeping, their trouser pockets had been ransacked and everything of value taken out of them.

The two victims were Tom Argue and D. G. Buck. Mr. Argue as usual hung up his trousers in the house upon retiring and slept some distance from where they were hanging. When he went to dress yesterday morning his watch, pocket book and pocket knife were all missing. He estimates his loss at a little over twenty dollars. Some repairs on the Argue house are being made and the burglar had no difficulty in effecting an entrance as the house was left open.

Mr. Buck's experience was very similar. He undressed in the rear room of the house and slept outside. Yesterday morning he found himself short his pocket book and knife. Fortunately before leaving the stable for the night he had deposited most of his change in the safe and the contents of the pocket book had been collected after having locked it. He only lost about five dollars and carried that with him rather than open the safe again for so small an amount. Mr. Buck is convinced that who ever worked off his trousers must have watched him undress. The burglar managed to get in by cutting a hand hole in the front door raising the latch. He then walked through several rooms to where the clothing was hanging and got out again without disturbing anything in the rooms or making sufficient noise to awaken either Mr. Buck or his wife. There is not the slightest clue to the identity of the burglar.

RETURNS FROM BOSTON.

Miss Sallie Hayden returned to Tempe yesterday morning after an absence of nearly four months. During that time she has crossed the continent almost twice. She left here in May and spent some little time in Los Angeles and other California points and leaving there went direct to Boston. She spent the summer there and in other eastern cities and enjoyed an interesting and pleasant vacation.

A HONEY SHIPMENT.

Wm. Rohrig, secretary of the Arizona Honey Exchange, spent yesterday in Phoenix where he was engaged in loading a car of honey for the eastern market. The car was sent out to New York last evening. This makes the fifth car that has been shipped this season and it is estimated approximately that there will be about twice that much more shipped this season.

SOLD HIS LEASE.

Mahlon Brown yesterday sold his lease on the Mons Ellingson half section to Frank Fogal. A portion of the lease expires in December and the balance early in the year. Mr. Brown will now be able to devote his entire time to his own place, an eighty-acre tract just south of the Government date orchard.

LEVELLED A WEAPON AT HIS PARTNER

A Dispute Over the Ownership of a Pitcher Begets Trouble in a Cheap Restaurant.

Jesus Vega lies in the county jail waiting for arraignment on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon the person of Pitto Lorenzo, who is his partner in a comeback restaurant at the corner of Second and Jackson streets.

Vega is a Mexican and Lorenzo is an Italian and there appears to have been for some time considerable friction between the partners and racial troubles that came to a focus yesterday afternoon. Lorenzo suggested that one or the other buy or sell out to his partner in the biscuit joint, and Vega immediately began to gather together what he claimed was his individual property. When Vega added a pitcher to his collection the Italian entered protest and said that he brought that pitcher all the way from Roosevelt and he did not intend to be disposed of. Thereupon the Mexican flashed from his clothing a thirty-two revolver and leveled it at his partner's head.

Lorenzo intimated that the Mexican could shoot him if he wanted to, a fact which was apparent, but the Italian kept trying to get away as fast as he could. Tom Woods came along at this juncture and Vega thinking him an officer ran out of the back door and hid his gun. Woods demanded it of him and finally called up Justice Johnstone, who sent Deputy Sheriff Wayne Davis to the scene of hostilities to make the arrest. The Italian found the weapon hid in some bushes together with a box of cartridges, which will be in evidence today, when Vega is arraigned before Justice Johnstone.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BROWN—The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. Brown will be held from the family residence at 253 North Third avenue today at 4 p. m. Rev. Williams officiating. She was a woman of 55 years of age and came here three years ago from Tennessee. She leaves one son, Dr. Brown, who resides in Phoenix.

DEAL CLOSED UP—The sale of the Perkins ranch was closed up yesterday and Vernon Cook and Jack Adams are now the owners. The deal was made through the firm of Green and Griffin and the consideration was about $4500.

COMPLETED MUSICAL STUDIES—Mrs. Arthur Gibbons Hullett returned home yesterday from Chicago where she has been spending the summer and taking special work in vocal and instrumental music under some leading masters. The summer's work has been the most pleasant she has enjoyed and was very profitable. Prof. Liebling, her former teacher gave Mrs. Hullett some fine credentials on her departure, of which she is naturally very proud.
